

RED ALERT

I hear the news
I see the signs
Sound the alarm
Darkness around

Is this the end
It's black and blue
The end of times
I want to know

I wanna see You
I wanna hear You
I wanna be there
You're coming back

I will wait for You
I long for You
I know that You're coming back

I wanna go home
I wanna be free
Heaven is the place for You and me

I wanna go home
I wanna be free
Heaven waits for You and me

And when I hear
The trumpet call
I search the sky
It's red alert

On the wings of love
In my saviors arms
I'm on my way
To the promised land

I wanna go there
I wanna be there
I wanna stay
When it's time to go home

I will wait for You
I long for You
I know that You're coming back

I wanna go home
I wanna be free
Heaven is the place for You and me

I wanna go home
I wanna be free
Heaven waits for You and me

I wanna go home
I wanna be free
Heaven is the place for You and me

I wanna go home
I wanna be free
Heaven waits for You and me
